

WENT AFTER PRIDEMORE.

Sheriff K. S. Woodruff left last evening for Juarez, Mexico after Thomas Pridemore who is held in jail there and he will return here with the prisoner Sunday, if his plans materialize as he is anticipating. Sheriff Woodruff went to Las Cosas Grande, Mexico two weeks ago after Pridemore and found him in jail there, but the Mexican authorities would not hear to giving him over to the officer without extradition papers, altho' Pridemore was willing to come to Roswell without the papers. The prisoner was transferred to Juarez Jail, just across the river and Sheriff Woodruff has been busy getting the necessary "red tape." Pridemore is charged with complicity in stealing 973 head of cattle from the El Capitan Land & Cattle Company, of which he was manager at the time the theft is alleged to have been committed last year. He has been indicted on two charges and the bond in each case is fixed at $3,000. Pridemore has friends here and it is thought that he can furnish the required bond when he reaches Roswell. Lee Bivins of Amarillo, a prominent stock broker and banker of that city and reputed to be a millionaire and R. A. Morris, President of the Horseshoe Land and Cattle Co. with headquarters at Portales, have been indicted on three charges each alleging that they conspired with Pridemore to embezzle the money that is claimed to have been received from the sale of the cattle. The bond in their cases was fixed at $3,000 on each indictment, making $18,000 in all which was promptly furnished.

As attorney for Bivins and Morris Judge Gatewood, notified them by wire as soon as he learned that indictments had been returned against them and they came here and furnished the bond and were released, without ever being arrested. It is claimed that the cases will be among the hardest fought criminal matters that has ever come up in Chaves county. Morris is well known here and Thos. Pridemore is one of the best known stockmen in the entire territory.

There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by all dealers.

Texas-New Mexico Boundary Question

The boundary lines established between New Mexico and Texas in 1859-60 by the Boundary Commission, under the act of June 5, 1858 (11 Stats. 310) were confirmed as the true boundary lines by the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1891 (26 Stats. 971). These lines were established by a boundary commission upon which Jno. H. Clark was appointed as Commissioner on behalf of the United States, and the lines established have usually been referred to as the "Clark Lines." The 32nd parallel of north latitude was first established at the southern boundary of New Mexico from a point on the Rio Grande to the one hundred and third meridian west longitude, which latitude formed the east boundary of the territory. Portions only of this meridian were actually established and marked in the field, that between the 32nd and 33rd parallels of latitude from the south end of the meridian and that from the northwest corner of Texas (latitude 36 deg. 30 min.) south as far as the 34th parallel, leaving a distance of some seventy five miles not marked in any manner.

Public land surveys have recently been made in the locality of Texico and in these surveys the conditions along that part of the 103rd meridian have been found to be in accordance with the previous general reports concerning the same, i. e., although no Clark monuments were found in that locality, a line of fence known as the

Good Land Cheap As Dirt

"Syndicate fence" had been constructed by parties owning land in Texas as the west boundary of their holdings and while this fence could not be considered as an official line, yet it was found to be in the position where other surveys referred to Clark monuments to the north would indicate its existence as approximately defining the line established by Clark.

Under authority from the Secretary of the Interior, an investigation was made of these boundary lines and of the 100th meridian by Arthur D. Kidder, Examiner of Surveys of the General Land Office in 1903, with a view of determining the astronomical locations of the various lines defining the common boundaries of New Mexico and Texas, and a report thereon was submitted April 19, 1904, to the Secretary of the Interior, with the view to having the same submitted to Congress, as a basis for such further legislation, if any, as might be deemed necessary to define with exactness these boundaries upon the ground. So far no such legislation has been had.

It was found by Mr. Kidder that at the intersection of the parallels defined as the boundaries, that there were discrepancies between the Clark survey of the 103 meridian and the Kidder location thereof, varying from 2.7 miles at the northwest corner of Texas to 3.84 miles at the Southeast corner of New Mexico.

Until further legislation is had the General Land Office will continue to recognize the Clark lines as establishing the east and south boundaries of New Mexico.

John Schrock, of Artesia, returned to his home last evening after a trip to Roswell.

Charles D. Keyes and Wife Return

Charles D. Keyes and wife returned last evening after an absence of 8 months and they are here to locate in the city permanently. Mr. Keyes was formerly owner of a large ranch, 50 miles north of the City and some time ago disposed of his interests to W. H. Long. Mr. and Mrs. Keyes went from here to their old home at Warren, Massachusetts where they visited for three months. During their absence they visited in Colorado and Canada, all of the New England states. They went from Massachusetts to Havana, Cuba, where they spent the greater part of the winter and came here from that city. They were residents of the Pecos Valley for ten years. They have numerous friends here who will be glad to welcome them back to the best valley in the United States.
